Corporate and Securities Lawyer Howard Berkower Joins McCarter & English in New York as Partner

NEW YORK -- Howard M. Berkower has joined the New York office of law firm McCarter & English, LLP as a corporate and securities partner.

Mr. Berkower advises public and private companies, private equity funds, start-ups, financial institutions and institutional investors in structuring and executing mergers and acquisitions, venture capital investments, public offerings, private placements, and loan and debt financings. He also assists public companies and their executives in complying with reporting obligations under the securities laws and advises directors and management on corporate governance, fiduciary duty obligations and securities matters.

Previously a partner at Zukerman Gore & Brandeis, LLP, and before that a partner at Baker & McKenzie, Mr. Berkower is a graduate of Brooklyn College (B.S. cum laude, 1978) and Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law (J.D. cum laude, 1984), where he was Executive Editor of the Cardozo Law Review. He served as Law Clerk to the Hon. Robert G. Doumar in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia from 1984 to 1985.

McCarter & English, established more than 160 years ago, represents Fortune 500 and mid-cap companies in their national, regional and local litigation and on important transactions. Its 400 attorneys are based in offices in Boston; Hartford; New York; Newark, NJ; Philadelphia; Stamford, CT; and Wilmington, DE.
